

ONLINE TODAY

Opening up the digital world for people with hearing loss

Not everyone has the confidence to go online and use the internet. We can help you make a start. We will help you to build skills and confidence and demonstrate why using the internet is a positive thing.

Learn how to:

- Communicate with family and friends all over the world
- Make life easier by shopping and paying bills online
- Use comparison websites to get the best deals and save you money
- Find answers to any questions about any topic

You can tell us what you would like to learn and we will show you how.
