

Northern Ireland Association for the Study of Psychoanalysis (NIASP)

30th Anniversary Conference

Safeguarding the Analytic Space in a Safeguarding Culture

Saturday, 13th October 2018
9.00am – 5.00pm

Riddel Hall, 185 Stranmillis Road,
Belfast BT9 5EE

Draft Conference Programme

- 8.30am: Registration and refreshments
- 9.30am: Welcome
(Dr Hannah Browne, Chair NIASP)
- 9.45am: Dr Anne Alvarez
- 10.45am: Break
- 11.00am: Dr Carine Minne
- 12.00pm: Plenary session with Q&A
- 12.30pm: Lunch
- 1.30pm: Dr Bernard Roberts
- 2.30pm: Plenary session with Q&A
- 4.00pm: Closing remarks
- 4.30pm: Presentation of Dr Freeman Award

Welcome music provided by registered music therapists Josie Nugent, Michelle Wooderson and Julie Sutton

Bookstall provided by Blackwell's at Queen's

Speakers

Dr Bernard Roberts is an Adult and Child Psychoanalyst, Safeguarding Lead and Head of the Child and Adolescent Clinic of the Institute of Psychoanalysis. He worked for 38 years as a Consultant Psychiatrist in psychotherapy and as lead consultant for an inner London Borough parental mental health service.

Dr Anne Alvarez PhD, MACP, is a Consultant Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist and retired Co-Convenor of the Autism Service, Child and Family Department, Tavistock Clinic London, where she still teaches.

Dr Carine Minne is Consultant Psychiatrist in Forensic Psychotherapy at Broadmoor Hospital, West London Mental Health NHS Trust and the Portman Clinic, Tavistock & Portman NHS Foundation Trust. She is Vice-President of the IAFP. She is also a psychoanalyst with the British Psychoanalytical Society.

Conference Fees

(Includes lunch)

Student/Self-Funded £110 Organisationally Funded £130

Early bird discount – 10% reduction for bookings confirmed by 30 June 2018

CPD Certificates will be presented at the event

For further information and to book a place please email niasp_knockbracken@yahoo.co.uk

Terms and Conditions: In the event of cancellations, refunds will only be made in exceptional circumstances. Substitute participation will be accepted subject to NIASP agreement.

