

Faculty of Arts,
Humanities &
Social Sciences

BSc Hons Community Development

ulster.ac.uk

BSc Hons Community Development

If you have experience working in a paid or unpaid capacity with disadvantaged or marginalized communities and want to gain a professionally accredited 3rd level qualification, this course is for you.

This course will;

Develop your knowledge understanding and skills in community development

Core learning includes;

- Community engagement and capacity building
- Groupwork and collective action
- Collaborative and partnership working
- Community learning for social change
- Governance and organisational development

Award

BSc Hons Community Development

Campus

Jordanstown

How much will my course cost?

The tuition fee is currently £1,367.70* per year.

ulster.ac.uk

Payment options available

Monthly payments and discounts are available. Please visit the website for more information on payment options.

Financial help available

There are part-time tuition fee loans and grants available. Find out more about financial support for part-time study at studentfinancenico.uk

When does the course run?

One day per week over 4 years.
Exit options: Student who successfully complete levels 4 and 5 may exit with lower awards.

How do I apply?

Applications to part-time undergraduate courses at Ulster are made through the University's online application system.

Visit ulster.ac.uk/study

Entry Requirements

You should be working in a paid or voluntary capacity within a relevant community work area for a minimum of 8 hours per week.

GCSE English Grade C or higher or equivalent.

A Level Grade A – E

Alternatively applicants with experience in voluntary/ Community Work may gain direct entry via Accreditations or Prior Learning (APL)

Get in touch

 Dr Rosemary Moreland (Course Director)

 rj.moreland@ulster.ac.uk

 +44 (0)28 9036 8333