

JOB DESCRIPTION: WELFARE OFFICER

(TROUBLES PERMANENT DISABLEMENT PAYMENT SCHEME)

Location: Manchester (remote working initially)
Hours of work: 16 hours per week
Salary: £11,407.68 Gross plus 6% Pension (funded initially until 31/03/2022 but may be extended subject to further funding being secured)

Background

The South East Fermanagh Foundation (SEFF) was founded in 1998 in Northern Ireland to provide practical and emotional support for individuals who had been through traumatic experiences as a consequence of 'The Troubles.'

Over the years SEFF's development as a provider of services for victims/survivors has evolved and in the last four years, additional focus has been given to developing the case of need for victims/survivors based in Great Britain ensuring they also have access to support services alike their Northern Ireland counterparts.

SEFF now have an office in Finsbury Park in London currently as well as five hubs for service delivery in Northern Ireland; Lisnaskea, County Fermanagh. Newtownstewart, County Tyrone. Rathfriland, County Down, Lisburn, County Antrim, and Bessbrook, south Armagh.

We are recruiting a Welfare Officer based in London and Manchester.

Mission Statement

'Supporting Victims and Survivors, Strengthening Communities.'

SEFF's core services include:

Signposting services, advocacy services, justice, truth and acknowledgement programmes and initiatives, counselling support, welfare/benefits advice + appeals/tribunals representation, respite events, volunteering opportunities, personal development, national and international projects.

The Post

This post has been developed as part of the VSS Programme.

Purpose of the Role

The Welfare Officer role has been developed in order to support victims/survivors engaging with the Troubles Permanent Disablement Payment Scheme and their broader interaction with the wider welfare and benefits system. There will be two welfare officers in Great Britain, one in London and one in Manchester.

Duties

To deliver a confidential, impartial and objective welfare advice service to victims and survivors of The Troubles living in Great Britain. This will include face to face (centre or home visits), emails, telephone calls, Zoom/Microsoft Teams meetings. To provide representation for SEFF clients at all stages of the pensions process, including the appeals stage. Remote working will be in place initially, with a phased return to the physical office when possible.

Key Responsibilities:

Welfare

1. Be proficient in the rules and regulations associated with the Troubles Permanent Disablement Payment Scheme (TPTDS).
2. Follow up and prioritise referrals to the welfare advice service, advising and assisting clients.
3. Provide information to clients on welfare benefit rules/tests and processes so clients are empowered and have a better understanding of the welfare benefits system and welfare reforms which may affect them.
4. Maximise client's income by completion of The TPDP process or undertaking benefit checks, benefit and better off calculations and identifying other means of practical support.
5. Prepare for Mandatory Reconsideration hearings and appeals.
6. Prepare written submissions for appeals, research commissioner decisions and abide by the TAS Code of Practice in providing Social Security Appeal representation.
7. Provide effective representation at Social Security and Disability Appeal Tribunals.
8. Assume responsibility for the management of case files including the accurate inputting of relevant case details onto the organisation's computerised Advice Pro case recording system and maintaining timely and up to date records.
9. To keep updated with the changes in law relating to welfare reform and the benefits system.

Social Policy & Lobbying

10. Identify, record and follow up social policy issues as they arise and report these issues to the Director of Services.
11. Contribute to social policy research and papers as requested.
