

Study Community Youth Work Part-Time at Ulster University

BSc. (Hons) Community Youth Work 4-year part-time, Belfast

We are recruiting for September 2025 entry for this part-time 4-year NSETS-endorsed programme, leading to a recognised JNC professional qualification in youth work. Attendance is one day each week. Study takes place across 4 academic years.

The programme integrates classroom teaching, online learning, and work-based practice. There are three periods of work-based Assessed Practice, two of which are based in the student's current community youth work employment.

Applicants should meet the following criteria:

- Demonstrate active involvement in community youth work in the last 18 months.
- Be working 10-16 hours per week (paid) for an employer within the community youth work sector.
- Have GCSE English grade C or above (or equivalent).
- Have a Level 2 qualification in youth work or equivalent.
- Have successful completion of level 3 study or above.

Closing Date for Applications:
Friday 28th February 2025
