Groundwork NI,
63-75 Duncairn Gardens,
Belfast BT15 2GB

Help us change places and change lives

Thank you for your interest in applying for a position at Groundwork NI. This is a challenging time for society, but a hugely rewarding time for our organisation.

Established in 1991, Groundwork Northern Ireland is a charity that is passionate about creating a future where every neighbourhood is vibrant and green, every community is strong and able to shape its own destiny and no-one is held back by their background or circumstances.

The climate crisis is affecting everyone and we aim to work with communities to support them to take action, to reduce carbon consumption and the mitigate against the effects of climate change.

We will do this by helping people gain skills, training and work; work with communities to protect and improve community spaces; enabling them to overcome the significant challenges we face.

We're a small team with a busy and diverse workload, which means there is huge scope to collaborate, learn and grow. We offer excellent working conditions and benefits and are committed to helping all of our employees develop their careers.

I hope you'll want to join us as we set out on the next exciting phase of our organisational journey.

Mark Johnston
Director NI

ABOUT GROUNDWORK NI

GROUNDWORK NI

We want to see empowered communities grown from the ground up, that are sustainable, happy and healthy places to live, work and play.

We will help communities create better places. - Through our work we aim to support communities to become greener, safer, and healthier enabling people to work together to bring about change at a local level.

We will support and enable people to improve their prospects- Increasing the confidence, resilience, skills, wellbeing and employability of those who need our services.

We will promote greener choices- Helping people and businesses think about the environment around them differently, realise their impact, helping them to cut waste, save money and live more healthily.

WORKING FOR GROUNDWORK NI

01

VALUES

Our values inform what we do and how we do it.

We are environmentally aware and focused on communities in need.

We are collaborative, show integrity and strive for quality in everything we do.

We are committed, respectful and work hard to make a difference, delivering positive outcomes.

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY

We are fully committed to eliminating discrimination and promoting equality and diversity in our workforce and employment practices, in the work we undertake, and in the provision of all our services.

We value diversity and flexibility in our workforce as we think it gives us access to a wider range of skills. We therefore strive to be an equal opportunities employer. This means that decisions concerning recruitment, promotion or any other aspect of employment will be based on the needs of the organisation and not any assumptions based on sex, race, age, disability, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, married or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, religion or belief (these are known as 'protected characteristics'). This is an important commitment, which all employees are expected to share.

SAFEGUARDING

We commit to doing everything we can to ensure the safety of those involved in our projects, programmes and services. Our safeguarding team ensures that our safeguarding policy and practices are rigorously implemented and continually reviewed and improved.

Our safer recruitment practices help us to ensure that we recruit colleagues who share our high standards and expectations. All job offers are conditional on the receipt of satisfactory references. We are also obliged to confirm your identity and obtain proof of your right to work. We ask all staff to undertake safeguarding training when they join us.

SUSTAINABILITY

Groundwork NI is committed to minimising its environmental impact and promoting positive environmental behaviour among its employees, service users, suppliers and partners. Our sustainable development policy sets out how we will manage our assets and activities in a way that's consistent with our values and demonstrates our commitment. The policy relates to all areas of our work and contains responsibilities for all employees.

Goals for Climate - Sustainability Manager

Introduction

As the climate crisis deepens, engaging a broader more diverse audience in climate action is essential for achieving net-zero targets and ensuring a just transition for vulnerable communities. Research in Northern Ireland suggests, that local communities feel disconnected from decision-makers shaping climate policy, requiring more relatable accessible pathways to engage in climate solutions. The Goals for Climate programme aims to address this need, through an exciting programme funded by The National Lottery Community Climate Action Fund.

Sustainability Manager Role at Groundwork

Groundwork is seeking a passionate and dynamic Sustainability Manager to lead the “Goals for Climate” initiative. This exciting programme, delivered in partnership with the Irish Football Association Foundation and Queen’s University, aims to harness the unifying power of sport to mobilise communities in climate action across Northern Ireland.

- Team Management: Lead a small team, leveraging your understanding of climate change and community engagement.
- Programme Leadership: Oversee the development and delivery of the Goals for Climate programme, ensuring alignment with the Climate Action programme outcomes.
- Community Engagement: Inspire and mobilise local football clubs and communities to take part in climate action, developing a network of Green volunteers with the skills to understand their carbon footprint, design and implement climate action plans, and adopt sustainable practices.
- Partnership Development: overseeing program, working with partners including Queens University and IFA Foundation, to deliver the program.

Role Requirements:

- Varied and Challenging Work: Engage with emerging climate change concepts and coordinate a multi-layered work programme.
- Skill Development: Opportunity to develop skills in programme design, training, event organisation, and gain valuable experience in leading climate action initiatives.
- Representation: Represent Groundwork at external events and meetings, collaborating with other leaders in the climate action sector.
- Communication: Communicate clearly and work effectively with key partners, stakeholders, and colleagues across the Trust and the Groundwork Federation.

Why Join Us? Groundwork NI is committed to being an inclusive employer, offering flexible working arrangements and supportive, family-friendly policies. This role is perfect for a driven, curious, and collaborative individual looking to make a significant impact in climate action.

BENEFITS

- ✓ Starting salary: £31,288 per annum
- ✓ 25 days pro rata per annum rising by an extra 1 day per year after 5 years employment.
- ✓ 11 customary days pro rata per year
- ✓ Flexi-time arrangements
- ✓ Enhanced terms for expectant mothers and fathers
- ✓ Pension contribution
- ✓ Salary sacrifice benefits including childcare vouchers and cycle to work scheme
- ✓ Sickness absence scheme

- Partnership Collaboration: Actively work with project partners to ensure timely design and delivery of deliverables and milestones.
- Reporting: Ensure programme reports to the funder are delivered on time and budgets are managed according to funder requirements.
- Reference Group Oversight: Set up and oversee the reference group to ensure it meets its objectives.
- Team Management: Manage two Goals for Climate coordinators to ensure local climate action activities are delivered in line with the programme plan.

- Communications: Oversee programme communications to maximise impact through social media, events, and partnership activities, in line with National Lottery guidance.
- Evaluation Framework: Collaborate with Queen's University to ensure the evaluation framework is delivered and learning is shared.
- Representation: Represent GWNI at meetings and public events.
- Outreach Development: Develop outreach with local and national public sectors to increase awareness of programme outcomes.
- Reporting and Analysis: Provide reports and analysis against the business plan for the Management Team, Board of Directors, and its subcommittees.
- Positive Communication: Promote the practices, benefits, and impact of GWNI projects to external stakeholders to support sustainable funding.
- Knowledge Maintenance: Stay updated on climate change and relevant policies, providing this information to Climate NI partners.
- Record Keeping: Maintain accurate records in accordance with GDPR.

Personal and Professional Development

- Participate in the GWNI Performance Management and Appraisal process and agree short, medium and long terms objectives.
- Identify learning and development needs and evaluate training and development to demonstrate needs have been met.
- Share good practice and achievements, and actively seek opportunities to present outcomes.
- Contribute to the learning of others across GWNI and the Groundwork Federation by sharing knowledge and skills, both informally and formally.
- In partnership with project staff gather case studies and recordings to evidence this learning and good practice.

Other

Undertake any other work appropriate with the evolving objectives of the post and as may reasonably be requested by the Management Team.

Ensure adherence to all GWNI policies and procedures.

Fair Employment Monitoring Questionnaire

Private & Confidential

Introduction

Groundwork NI is an Equal Opportunities Employer. We do not discriminate against our job applicants or employees, and we aim to select the best person for the job. We monitor the community background and sex of our job applicants and employees in order to demonstrate our commitment to promoting equality of opportunity in employment and to comply with our duties under the Fair Employment & Treatment (NI) Order 1998.

You are not obliged to answer the questions on this form, and you will not suffer any penalty if you choose not to do so. Nevertheless, we encourage you to answer these questions. Your answers will be used by us to prepare and submit a monitoring return to the Equality Commission, but your identity will be kept anonymous. In all other regards your answers will be treated with the strictest confidence. We assure you that your answers will not be used by us to make any decisions affecting you, whether in a recruitment exercise or during the course of any employment with us.

Community Background

Regardless of whether they actually practice a religion, most people in Northern Ireland are perceived to be members of either the Protestant or Roman Catholic communities.

Please indicate the community to which you belong by ticking the appropriate box below:

I am a member of the Protestant community

I am a member of the Roman Catholic community

I am not a member of either the Protestant or the Roman Catholic communities

If you do not answer the above question, we are encouraged to use the residuary method of making a determination, which means that we can make a determination as to your community background on the basis of the personal information supplied by you in your application form/personnel file.

Sex: Please indicate your sex by ticking the appropriate box below:

Male:

Female:

Note: If you answer this questionnaire you are obliged to do so truthfully as it is a criminal offence under the Fair Employment (Monitoring) Regulations (NI) 1999 to knowingly give false answers to these questions.

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) Privacy statement

How we use your information

Groundwork Northern Ireland (GWNl) is committed to maintaining high standards of privacy and data protection for our stakeholders and those we work with. This privacy notice lets you know what happens to any personal data that you give to us, or any that we may collect from or about you.

Groundwork Northern Ireland is a charity and company limited by guarantee based at 63-75 Duncairn Gardens, Belfast, BT15 2GB.

GWNl is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office

Registration Number: Z9691534

Sharing your personal data

We may employ third party companies and individuals to facilitate our own service provision, to provide a service on our behalf, to perform related services or to assist us in analysing how our service is used. These third parties may have access to your personal information only to perform these tasks on our behalf and must comply with GWNl's Data Protection Policy.

We may share personal data with other people or organisations where we have obtained your consent.

We use the following lawful bases to process personal data:

- Where you have given consent for us to do so.
- Where it is in our legitimate interests, and this is not overridden by your rights and freedoms.
- Where it is necessary to meet our legal obligation.
- Where it is necessary for us to fulfil a contract or pre-contractual obligations.
- Where we are protecting someone's vital interests.
- Where we are fulfilling a public task or acting under official authority.

Your rights

Under the General Data Protection Regulation, you have rights as an individual which you can exercise in relation to the information that we hold about you.

GWNI tries to be as open as it can be in terms of giving people access to their personal information. Individuals can find out if we hold any personal information by making a Subject Access Request. If we do hold information about you that you are entitled to, we will engage with you and endeavour to:

- give you a description of it.
- tell you why we are holding it.
- tell you who it could be disclosed to.

let you have a copy of the relevant information in an intelligible form remove your data, on request, if this would not prevent the administration of a service we are contracted to deliver.

To make a request for any personal information we may hold you need to email info@groundworkni.co.uk.

Your rights under data protection laws

The General Data Protection Regulation provides the following rights to you:

- The right to be informed about the processing of your personal information.
- The right to have your personal information corrected if it is inaccurate and to have incomplete personal information completed.
- The right to object to processing of your personal information.
- The right to restrict processing of your personal information.
- The right to have your personal information erased (the “right to be forgotten”)
- The right to request access to your personal information and to obtain information about how we process it
- The right to move, copy or transfer your personal information (“data portability”)
- Rights in relation to automated decision-making which has a legal effect or otherwise significantly affects you

GWNI endeavours to meet the highest standards when collecting and using personal information. For this reason, we take any complaints we receive about this very seriously. We encourage people to bring it to our attention if they think that our collection or use of information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate. We would also welcome any suggestions for improving our procedures.

This privacy notice was drafted with brevity and clarity in mind. It does not provide exhaustive detail of all aspects of GWNI’s collection and use of personal information. However, we are happy to provide any additional information or explanation needed. If you want to make a complaint about the way we have processed your personal information, or if you have a query or any concerns, you can email info@groundworkni.co.uk.

Please note that the exercise of your rights is dependent on the lawful basis that has been used for each processing activity. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office, which enforces data protection laws: <https://ico.org.uk/concerns>

When you email us

Any email sent to us, including any attachments, may be monitored and used by us for reasons of security and for monitoring compliance with our policies. Email monitoring or blocking software may also be used. Please be aware that you have a responsibility to ensure that any email you send to us is within the bounds of the law.

Emails may be shared within GWNI to ensure that a query is addressed to, and resolved by, the correct Department.

When you contact us via social media

GWNI uses a variety of social media outlets to engage with stakeholders. We cannot guarantee that information shared through these media will be private, for example, if you share your contact details in an unsecure and public space then these may be viewed by parties other than GWNI. Please do not share personal information in a public forum.

If you send us a private or direct message via social media the message will be stored but will not be shared with any other organisations.

When you visit our office: CCTV

GWNI has four CCTV cameras installed that video record at four points covering the entrance to the office. These are for security purposes only, allowing for the premises to be monitored and acting as a deterrent to any potential criminal activity. The CCTV is stored in a secure room. Recordings are retained for one month, long enough for any incident to come to light and the incident to be investigated, after which they are automatically erased. Except for law enforcement bodies, images will not be provided to third parties.

Job Applicants

What will we do with the information you provide to us?

The information you provide during the process will only be used for the purpose of progressing your application, or to fulfil legal or regulatory requirements, if necessary. We will not share any of the information you provide during the recruitment process with any third parties for marketing purposes or store any of your information outside of the European Economic Area. The information you provide will be held securely by us and/or our data processors whether the information is in electronic or physical format. We will use the contact details you provide to us to contact you to progress your application. We will use the other information you provide to assess your suitability for the role you have applied for.

What information do we ask for, and why?

We do not collect more information than we need to fulfil our stated purposes and will not retain it for longer than is necessary. The information we ask for is used to assess your suitability for employment. You don't have to provide what we ask; however, it might affect your application if you don't.

We ask you for your personal details including name and contact details. We will also ask you about your previous employment and experience, education, referees and for answers to questions relevant to the role you have applied for. Our recruitment team will have access to all of this information.

You will also be asked to provide equal opportunities information. This is not mandatory information — if you don't provide it, it will not affect your application. This information will not be made available to any staff outside of our recruitment team, including hiring managers, in a way which can identify you. Any information you do provide, will be used only to produce and monitor equal opportunities statistics.

We might ask you to attend an interview. Information will be generated by you and by us. For example, you might complete a written test, or we might take interview notes. This information is held by Groundwork NI.

If you are unsuccessful following assessment for the position you have applied for, we may ask if you would like your details to be held on a reserve list. If you say yes, we will proactively contact you should any further suitable vacancies arise.

If we make a conditional offer of employment, we will ask you for information so that we can carry out pre-employment checks. You must successfully complete pre-employment checks to progress to a final offer. We are required to confirm the identity of our staff, their right to work in the United Kingdom and seek assurance as to their trustworthiness, integrity and reliability. You will therefore be required to provide:

- Proof of your identity
- Proof of your qualifications
- Access NI check

How long is the information retained for?

If you are successful, the information you provide during the application process will be retained by us as part of your employee file for the duration of your employment plus 6 years following the end of your employment. This includes your criminal records declaration, fitness to work, records of any security checks and references.

If you are unsuccessful at any stage of the process, the information you have provided until that point, and information generated throughout the assessment process will be retained by us for 12 months.

Equal opportunities information is retained for three years whether you are successful or not. These timeframes are in line with the Fair Employment and Treatment (NI) Order 1998.

How to contact us

To request information about our privacy policy please email info@groundworkni.co.uk.

Declaration

Under the General Data Protection Guidelines, Groundwork NI is required to notify applicants and prospective employees as to how their personal data will be processed and used. This application, excluding the equal opportunities monitoring form, will be retained by Groundwork NI for a maximum period of 12 months, unless you are the successful applicant for the post, in which case your application will become part of your employee record. Some of the data you provide is considered to be Sensitive Personal Data, this information will be used to assist us with recruitment monitoring. It will be held separately from other application forms and will be retained for a three-year period under obligations arising from NI Equality Legislation. It will also be held electronically.

By signing this form, you are giving consent to Groundwork NI to use this data in the way described above.
