The application form and job-related information can be accessed through the Police Rehabilitation and Retraining Trust website: www.prrt.org.

Completed applications must be submitted either by email or post no later than Monday 2nd June 2025 at 12 noon. Late applications will not be accepted. It is up to candidates to ensure that their completed application has been received by the closing time and date. If you have any queries, please contact Human Resources on 028 9042 7788.

Please retain a copy of this pack for your reference throughout the selection process.

Communication between You and PRRT

PRRT will communicate with you via email as soon as possible following each stage of the selection process. Please ensure you provide a valid email address to which you have ongoing access.

Please remember that it is your personal responsibility to check your email folders for communication from us. This includes 'junk' folders, as some email providers may filter emails from us. Please check your email folders frequently, as we may contact you at short notice.

Section 1: Forward

Thank you for your interest in the role of Psychological Therapies Manager with the Police Rehabilitation and Retraining Trust. This recruitment and selection process will also be used to fill future vacancies and therefore a reserve list will be created for 12 months should any additional permanent or fixed term vacancies arise (offers of posts will be made in merit order).

The Psychology Department provides a highly specialist clinical service which aims to address and treat client's psychological needs which have arisen in the face of adversity and conflict. The post will be responsible for the provision, maintenance and development of current psychological therapy for the client group.

This is an excellent opportunity for suitably qualified individuals, the role comes with an excellent benefits package including free on-site parking, generous holidays and gym facilities on-site (see benefits in section 8 for further details).

All the information that you need in order to apply is provided in this information pack as well as further information about PRRT. Applications are to be made via our application form which should be emailed to: recruitment@prrt.org by the closing date of Monday 2nd June at 12 noon. If you have any queries or require any further information please email: recruitment@prrt.org or telephone 028 9042 7788.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Section 2: About Us

What We Do

PRRT is an Executive Non-Departmental Public Body fully funded by the Department of Justice (DoJ).

PRRT was established in 1999 to enable members and former members of the Police Service to achieve and sustain a successful transition into civilian life. To achieve this, PRRT offer Personal Development, Coaching and Training, Physiotherapy and Psychological Therapies to assist clients to recognize their potential, identify opportunities, set and achieve their objectives and enjoy optimum mental and physical wellbeing beyond policing.

The Trust also provides services (whether directly or on a sub-contract basis) to non-police bodies within, or funded by, the Department of Justice for Northern Ireland.

We support police officers planning to retire from service, or those who have already retired from the PSNI or RUC. We offer support to partners and immediate family members of eligible clients, in specific circumstances.

In addition, our Psychological Therapies Department provides a children and young people's service to children of retired police officers.

Section 5: Recruitment & Selection Process

The dates are provisional and are subject to change

Appointments to PRRT are made under the 'merit principle' where the best person for any given post is selected in fair and open competition.

Section 6: Terms and Conditions

This is an indication of the conditions of appointment and is not intended to be an exhaustive list.

Overview

1 Annual Leave

The Annual Leave year is from 1 April to 31 March. Employees are entitled to Annual Leave with pay in proportion to the completed months worked. Annual Leave entitlement is 25 days (based on a 5-day working week). Employees will receive an additional day of Annual Leave upon completion of 1 years' service and thereafter on an annual basis up to a maximum of 30 days.

2 Pension

A qualifying workplace pension scheme with a 15% employer contribution.

3 Probation

Your employment will be subject to a satisfactory completion of a probation period of 6 months during which time your progress will be monitored and feedback will be provided. You will be obliged to follow all the procedures laid down by PRRT.

4 Pre-employment checks

Appointment is subject to –

- i. Security clearance Level 2, Non-Police Personnel (NPP) and CTC Clearance
- ii. Receipt of satisfactory references. References will only be sought as part of a pre-employment check prior to appointment. References will be taken up from both referees named on the application form, one of which must be a current employer or, if not currently employed, the most recent employer who would have knowledge of the successful candidate in a working environment.
- iii. Providing the required documentation to satisfy the essential criteria, i.e. proof of qualifications. It is important to note that if you do not provide the requested documentation, you will not be able to take up post.
- iv. Documentation Checks for the Prevention of Illegal Working - it is your responsibility to demonstrate you are entitled to work in the United Kingdom. If you are unable to produce the relevant documents, or the documents are not satisfactory, the offer of employment may be withdrawn. You will be required to produce original documents to verify your identity, one of which must be photographic identification.
- v. It may be necessary for PRRT to carry out an Enhanced Disclosure Check through Access NI before any appointment to this post can be confirmed.
- vi. Appointment will be subject to a successful pre-employment health assessment.

Section 7: Applicant Guidance Notes

General Guidance

1. Please read the candidate information pack before completing your application form.
2. You must submit your application via the standard application form by email or post.
3. We will not accept CVs, letters, additional pages or any other supplementary material in place of, or in addition to, completed application forms.
4. You must fully complete all sections of the application form before your application can be considered. Failure to do so will result in disqualification.
5. All applications must be received by the closing date. Late applications will not be accepted. It is your responsibility to ensure that your application is submitted successfully prior to the closing date and time. PRRT will not take into consideration the failure of information technology / systems to successfully submit completed application forms by the closing date and time.
6. You must provide sufficient evidence for your application to be assessed against the criteria for the post. Therefore:
 - Be specific about qualifications including level and grades.
 - Be specific about your length of experience ensuring you provide appropriate dates as no assumptions will be made.
 - If required to 'demonstrate' experience of a particular skill/task please ensure you provide a specific example of this.
 - You should ensure that details are full, accurate and relevant to the post requirements.
 - Do not use abbreviations or complex technical detail.

Qualifications

1. If you are relying on equivalent qualifications, you are responsible for clearly detailing the qualification and how an equivalency has been justified.
2. Note: General information and guidance on qualifications can be found on the following website: <http://ofqual.gov.uk> and the Register of Regulated Qualifications can be used to check what level a qualification is: <https://www.gov.uk/find-a-regulated-qualification>.
3. If your qualifications were obtained outside the United Kingdom, please see the guidance on equivalent qualifications at <http://ofqual.gov.uk/help-and-advice/comparing-qualifications/>. Qualifications across Europe can be compared using the European Qualifications Framework: <https://ec.europa.eu/ploteus>. You can also refer to UK NARIC at www.naric.org.uk/naric to obtain formal comparison of your qualifications if they were obtained outside of the UK.
4. You will be required to provide documentary evidence of all qualifications and claimed equivalencies as part of the pre-employment checks. It is important to note that if you do not provide the requested documentation you will not be appointed.

Essential/Desirable Criteria

1. During shortlisting, you will only be assessed on the information contained within the Shortlisting section of your application form as this is the only section that the Panel will receive.
2. The Panel will not make assumptions about your skills and experience from the title of your post, years of experience or the nature of the organisation.
3. PRRT reserves the right to use both the essential and, if appropriate, desirable criteria for shortlisting purposes.

4. You must provide sufficient detail regarding how you meet all of the essential and, if appropriate, desirable criteria at the closing date, otherwise your application will not be shortlisted.
5. You must demonstrate how you meet each criterion in the relevant section provided. Each criterion is assessed individually and must therefore be completed in full, ie, you must not rely on information included in other criteria or contained within your employment history to demonstrate how you meet a criterion. If you do not meet all of the essential criteria, you will not be shortlisted.
6. You should use specific examples to demonstrate that you have the experience and skills required and clearly show your personal involvement in any experience you quote. Ensure your answer relates to what you specifically did in the example, write 'I' not 'We' as the Panel can only shortlist on what you have done. It will not be sufficient simply to list the duties and responsibilities of posts held.
7. If you have not been shortlisted on a particular criterion, the Panel will not review the remaining criteria.

Declaration

You will be required to declare that the information you provide in the application form is correct to the best of your knowledge. If you have provided false or misleading information this will render your application invalid and any appointment offered will be rescinded or terminated.

Submitting your Application

Duplicate applications will not be accepted. If you submit more than one application we will accept your first submission, unless you contact us before the closing date and time, and advise which application you want us to consider.

Reasonable Adjustments

If you require any assistance/reasonable adjustments during any stage of the selection process due to a disability, please contact the HR Manager on Tel: 028 9042 7788 or email: recruitment@prrt.org.

If you wish to receive an application form or candidate information pack in an accessible format, please advise HR of your requirements as promptly as possible, allowing for the fact that the closing date for receipt remains the same for all applicants as noted above.

Section 8: Applicant Guidance Notes

Equality Monitoring

We are committed to equality of opportunity for all employees and job applicants, regardless of gender, marital status, disability, age, religious affiliation, political opinion, ethnic origin, dependants or sexual orientation.

We select those suitable for employment and advancement solely on the basis of merit. In order to comply with legislative requirements, you must complete the Equality Monitoring Form. This also allows us to monitor the effectiveness of our policy of equal opportunities in employment and effectiveness of our recruitment advertising.

Please note this form is regarded as part of your application and failure to complete and return it will result in your application being rejected.

Changes in Personal Circumstances

Please ensure that you inform us immediately of any changes in personal circumstances. If you decide at any point during the recruitment process to withdraw your application, please inform us as soon as possible.

Data Protection

You should be aware that, when submitting an application form, we process the information provided for the purpose of meeting our legal obligations.
