

Team Leader - Job Description & Person Specification

Sense single salary point:	£13.84 per hour
Responsible to:	Registered Manager
Responsible for:	Frontline Staff

About Sense

For everyone living with complex disabilities. For everyone who is deafblind. Sense is here to help people communicate and experience the world. We believe that no one, no matter how complex their disabilities, should be isolated, left out, or unable to fulfil their potential. Our experts offer support that's tailored to the individual needs of each person, whether that's at our centres, through our holidays and short breaks, or in people's own homes. In addition to practical support, we also provide information to families, and campaign for the rights of people with complex disabilities to take part in life.

About the role

In this role you are a frontline worker supervising other team members as well as supporting people with a range of hearing and / or sight difficulties. In some services, the people you support will also have complex needs and learning disabilities.

In different services you could be supporting children, adults or older adults, or possibly people from different age groups.

The settings for Sense frontline level one supervisors include:

- Residential and supported living services
- Day activities services
- Community services

You are appointed to work in a particular service setting, of which more details will be provided in a one-page service profile. In line with our commitment to support people in the most flexible and person centred way we can, you may be asked to work in different services or settings in the future.

Objectives

The main purpose of your job is to supervise other team members as well as supporting people to be as involved as possible in every part of their day to day lives so that they can be full and active members of society. You will work within the framework of the Sense I Statements to:

1. Ensure team members are equipped to deliver a quality service to the people they support.
2. Keep the needs of the people you are supporting at the centre of your attention at all times;
3. Enable the people you support to influence their services and the way they are supported;
4. Help Sense to provide a high quality service.

Key responsibilities

1. Ensure team members are equipped to deliver a quality service to the people they support. This means:

- 1.1 Ensuring the people supported receive educational and leisure activities which have been jointly agreed at planning meetings.
- 1.2 Co-ordinating timetables for the people supported, liaising with others ensuring facilitated sessions are attended.
- 1.3 Supervising frontline workers as they support people to participate in their chosen activity. This includes carry out regular supervision sessions and appraisals with selected staff.
- 1.4 Contributing to the continuing development of the service.
- 1.5 Coaching and guiding support workers in ensuring the highest standards of performance are achieved.
- 1.6 Being involved in the recruitment and induction of new team members

2. Keep the needs of the people you are supporting at the centre of your attention at all times. This means:

- 2.1 Listening and responding to people, using communication they understand.
- 2.2 Supporting people to take part in enjoyable, satisfying and purposeful activities.
- 2.3 Supporting people to make sense of their environments and to access their communities.
- 2.4 Supporting people to learn new skills.
- 2.5 Supporting people with their health and well-being.
- 2.6 Supporting people with their personal care, if needed.
- 2.7 Supporting people with their behaviour, if needed.
- 2.8 Following any written plans and guidelines for each person.
- 2.10 Taking into account people's age, gender, ethnic origin, religious/cultural background, abilities/disabilities, and other needs.

3. Enable the people you support to influence their services and the way they are supported. This means:

- 3.1 Listening to what people tell you about what is important to them.
- 3.2 Using this information to contribute to developing person-centred guidelines and plans, involving families, friends and other professionals if this is appropriate.
- 3.3 Providing opportunities for people to make choices and decisions.
- 3.4 Supporting people to take part in the running of their own homes, if you work in a home environment.
- 3.5 Supporting people to speak up for themselves, and/or speaking up for them.
- 3.6 Supporting people to keep in contact with family and friends, and to develop their social networks.

4. Help Sense to provide a high quality service by:

- 4.1 Assisting the manager in the running of the service.
- 4.2 Keeping all records of your work up to date and accurate.
- 4.3 Completing Sense's induction and skills development programme and attending courses arranged by your manager. Taking part in supervision. Attending and contributing to meetings.
- 4.4 Behaving respectfully all the time to the people you support, their families/friends, your colleagues, and neighbours and members of the public.
- 4.5 Helping new colleagues to get to know the people they are supporting and how to work in the service.
- 4.6 Keeping up to date with Sense's policies and practices, and following these at all times.
- 4.7 Keeping a safe, healthy and supportive environment for the people you support, yourself, your colleagues, and anyone else coming into contact with Sense.
- 4.8 You may also be expected to carry out other duties that are in line with the nature and grade of the role.
- 4.9 To ensure the safeguarding of individuals in our care by adhering to our policies and procedures, acting on concerns raised, and reporting as required.
- 4.10 To ensure that staff are trained and competent in line with policies and procedures.
