Who We Are

Include Youth is a rights-based charity for children and young people in or leaving care, from disadvantaged communities or whose rights are not being met.

We work to improve employability, personal and social development enhancing inclusion, integration and good relations.

Include Youth influences public policy led by the voice of children and young people, evidence based practice and international children's rights standards.

Our Approach

Adopting a youth work based approach, we work alongside young people in order to provide life changing opportunities.

We provide a tailored wrap around service that helps young people gain qualifications, employability skills, develop self-confidence and a better understanding of cultural diversity and inclusion.

Our Vision

Include Youth's vision is of a society that realises and fulfils the rights and potential of all children and young people.

Our Values

Equality

We focus on driving equality amongst young people and in wider society, ensuring all young people have access to opportunities to improve their lives

Inclusion

We believe in an inclusive society, where regardless of background, everyone should have a voice. Include Youth involve and advocate for young people from all communities, creating a truly inclusive environment throughout Northern Ireland and across the border.

Opportunity

Through our work we ensure that young people are provided with opportunity to excel and thrive. By facilitating accessible programmes, we can drive opportunities for the most disadvantaged in society and create opportunity for all.

Integrity

We work in a respectful, helpful and transparent manner with our young people so we can advocate for them and achieve the best outcomes.

Our Services

Give and Take

Give and Take is a regional youth work intervention project to support young people aged 16 to 24 years old. It offers individually tailored programmes with core themes being; supported work experience, personal development, OCN qualifications, mentoring and transitional support.

Give and Take One to One is a programme that supports young people who are at risk of or have experienced Child Sexual Exploitation. It builds on protective factors and helps to improve their health and wellbeing in a supportive way

One to one

Expert By Experience

This project is led by young people, working directly with their peers. It builds upon Include Youth's 'Expert by Experience' (EBE) model of participation which empowers young people to lead. It employs 15 care experienced EBE's who will be supported to mentor other young people to become change makers and policy advocates.

We are committed to ensuring that the voice of young people is at the centre of decision making. We promote and protect the rights of children and young people and provide opportunities for young people to influence policy and decision makers. We support young people to develop their campaigns on issues which matter to them.

Policy

We deliver a range of accredited training and workshops such as;

Awareness raising workshop
on Child Sexual Exploitation,
OCN NI Level 2 in Understanding Child Sexual Exploitation,
OCN NI Level 4 in Supporting Care Experienced
Children and Young People
OCN NI Level 2 in Mentoring Practice

Training

Employability services offers one to one support for young people hoping to transition into employment and help them navigate this move. It offers: CV building, supported work placements, taster days, interview techniques and personal development support .

Strive is a cross-border, cross-community, good relations programme for young people aged 14 to 24 led by Include Youth in partnership with Youth Initiatives, Newstart Education Centre, Northern Ireland Alternatives and Lifford Clonleigh Resource Centre. Strive is an intensive youth-led youth work programme . It engages young people in a transformative process, focusing on four core strands: good relations, citizenship, personal development and employability.

Privacy Notice

Include Youth (referred to as "the organisation" throughout this notice) collects and processes personal data relating to job applicants as part of our recruitment process. We are committed to being transparent about how we collect and use that data and to meeting our data protection obligations.

This notice sets out the basis on which we collect, use and disclose the personal data of our job applicants, as well as your rights in respect of such personal data.

What information does the organisation collect and how?

Include Youth collects a range of information about you. This includes:

- your name, address and contact details, including email address and telephone number;
- details of your qualifications, skills, experience and employment history;
- information from interviews and phone-screenings you may have;
- information about your current level of remuneration, including benefit entitlements; information about your entitlement to work in the UK;
- equal opportunities monitoring information, including information about your ethnic origin, sexual orientation, health and religion or belief.

We may collect this information in a variety of ways. For example, data might be contained in application forms or CVs (including when these are sent to us as part of speculative applications or queries), obtained from your passport or other identity documents, or collected through interviews or other methods of assessment.

We may also collect personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers. We will seek information from third parties only once a job offer has been made to you. Data will be stored in a range of different places, including on your application record, in our HR management systems and our email system.

Why does Include Youth process personal data?

Include Youth collects and processes your data for a number of purposes and where we have a legal basis to do so, as follows.

Include Youth has a legitimate interest in processing personal data during the recruitment process and for keeping records of the process. Processing data from job applicants allows us to manage the recruitment process, assess and confirm a candidate's suitability for employment and decide to whom to offer a job. We may also need to process data from job applicants to respond to and defend against legal claims. We will not use your data for any purpose other than the recruitment process of which you are a part

Who has access to data?

Your information may be shared internally within the organisation for the purposes of the recruitment process. This includes members of the HR team, interviewers involved in the recruitment process, and managers in the business area with a vacancy.

We will not share your data with third parties unless your application for employment is successful and an offer of employment is made. We will then share your data with former employers in order to obtain references. In addition, we may need to share your personal information with a regulator or otherwise to comply with the law.

How does Include Youth protect data?

Include Youth takes the security of your data seriously. We have internal policies and controls in place to ensure that your data is not lost, accidentally destroyed, misused or disclosed, and is not accessed except by our personnel in the proper performance of their duties.

For how long does Include Youth keep data?

If your application for employment is unsuccessful (including when you have speculatively applied to us in respect of a role which is not available), we will hold your data on file for 6 months. At the end of that period, your data is deleted or destroyed (unless we need to retain it for longer to exercise or defend any legal claims). If your application for employment is successful, personal data gathered during the recruitment process will be transferred to your personnel file and retained during your employment. The periods for which employee data is held will be provided to you in a separate privacy notice.

Your rights

As a data subject, you have a number of rights under data protection law. You can:

- access and obtain a copy of your data on request;
- request Include Youth to change incorrect or incomplete data;
- request Include Youth to delete or stop processing your data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing;
- object to the processing of your data where Include Youth is relying on its legitimate interests as the legal ground for processing; or ask us to transfer your data to another organisation.

If you would like to exercise any of these rights or if you have any questions about this notice or our processing of your data more generally, please contact karin@includeyouth.org.

If you believe that the organisation has not complied with your data protection rights, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

What if you do not provide personal data?

You are under no statutory or contractual obligation to provide data to Include Youth during the recruitment process. However, if you do not provide the information, we may not be able to process your application.
