

Fundraising Coordinator

Children in Crossfire is an International Development organisation based in Derry/Londonderry, Northern Ireland that works to promote and protect the rights of children who are caught in the crossfire of extreme poverty.

The organisation is seeking to appoint a
Fundraising Coordinator

The Fundraising Coordinator will be based in the Greater Belfast area (working from home), with a minimum of one day per week in the Derry-Londonderry office. Reporting directly to the Head of Fundraising and Communications, the Fundraising Co-ordinator will be responsible for significantly growing Children in Crossfire's income in the greater Belfast area, primarily through:

- engagement with corporate prospects;
- engagement with churches;
- high return fundraising events and supporter led initiatives.

This role also includes responsibility for developing and delivering a new schools fundraising strategy.

The successful candidate must have a minimum of 3 years' paid work experience in a charity fundraising role and demonstrable experience of achieving set/annual targets.

This is a Full Time Post

The closing date for applications is 9pm on 29th June 2025.

The Job Description, Application Form & Fair Employment Questionnaire for this position can be downloaded from <https://www.childrenincrossfire.org/stay-connected/join-our-team/>

Completed application forms must be returned by email only to applications@childrenincrossfire.org

Please note we do not accept CVs.

Salary Available on Request