The Post

At Niacro we value the important role that families and carers have for someone's time in prison and after release. Supporting families to engage in Personal Development Plans and Post release planning can be the intervention that will reduce the likelihood of reoffending. The Northern Ireland Prison Service are committed to effectively engaging families and ensuring they work alongside them to promote best outcomes for the family and their family member in prison. Family links will provide families and carers with clear information in a user-friendly way, to help guide them through the justice system. Family Links offers families and children support at the earliest opportunity, assisting families to:

- Develop and maintain family ties (where it is relevant and safe to do so) as this improves outcomes including, in-prison behaviours, measures of health and reoffending upon release.
- Improve outcomes for children's wellbeing, education and community, providing early intervention and prevention including referrals to specialist support, engaging with statutory services and education.
- Build Resilience, Life Skills and Citizenship.
- Help families prepare for their family member's release and, where return to home will not be available, support parent/child(ren) to understand and work effectively with statutory services.

Family links outcomes will include:

- Crime reduction through support: We will support people affected by crime and imprisonment through the provision of bespoke, co-produced, and trauma-informed services that strengthen relationships, develop skills and build confidence aiding a successful re-settlement.
- Safer and inclusive communities: We will work in partnership and support those with lived experience of the criminal justice system, and others affected by crime, to achieve and sustain settled lives.
- Reduction of young people entering the criminal justice system: We will help prevent children and young people entering the criminal justice system by delivering early intervention services as well as working to influence the development of diversionary approaches.
- Insight driven change: We will affect meaningful change through service user-based research, influencing, and awareness.
